Activity Introduction

[APPROACH] Approach the resident from the front, on eye level, and smile.

[GREET] Greet the resident using their name.

[INTRODUCE] Introduce yourself using your name, and point to yourself.

[ASK] Ask how the resident is doing today.

» Say: "How are you doing today?"

[ASSESS] Complete the 'before' portion of the Emotion Assessment form.

» Say: "Which face shows how you feel right now?"

» Do: Present the resident with the Emotion Assessment 'before' Feeling Faces.

[RESPOND] Respond to and validate their response.

» Say: "So glad to hear you're well today." or "I'm sorry you're not feeling well."

» Do: Address the person's needs, if applicable.

Activity Questions

Question Suggestions:

- What do you like about decorating for the holidays?
 - Do you have a favorite holiday to decorate for?
 - Why? What do you like about it?
 - What decorations do you like to put out?
 - How did you decorate your house for the holidays?
- Did you have any decorating traditions for the holidays?

Activity-related Suggestions:

- Do you like how this looks?
- Does anything remind you of how you used to decorate?

Activity Instructions

[INTRODUCE] Introduce the personal care activity.

- » Say: "I know it's important for you to take care of your personal space and belongings, and that you enjoy decorating. Would you like me to help you decorate your room today?"
- » Do: Show the resident the materials you will be using and explain how they work, if needed.

[CHOICE] Ask the resident what holiday decorations they would like to put out.

- » Say: "What decorations would you like to put out? We have [list available options for the chosen holiday]."
- » Do: Point to decorations as you offer them.
- » Variation: If more help is needed, only present 2 options at once, as to not overwhelm the resident. If they are unable to choose, then pick one that aligns with their preferences.

[BEGIN] Begin decorating with the resident.

Activity Instructions continued

[ENCOURAGE] Encourage the resident (remember: engagement over correctness).

- » Say: "Your room looks so festive!" or "You're a great decorator."
- » Do: Smile and nod, gesture around the room.

[ASK QUESTIONS] See question card for ideas.

[OFFER] Offer to assist the resident with the activity, if needed.

- » Say: "I will be right here if you need any help."
- » Do: Observe the resident and if they are struggling, offer to help.
- » Variation: If more help is needed, continue to encourage choice, but help the resident to place items in their room or come up with ideas.

 If the resident is struggling with the activity, simplify questions and/or engage more with sense (see next page).

Using the Senses

[SENSE] Engage the resident by using prompts, such as questions or gestures, relating to the five senses. Encourage the resident to see, touch, smell, taste, and hear during the activity, for a sensory experience. (Tip: Participate with the resident, you can answer these questions too).

» See: Encourage the resident to look at their belongings and room decor; notice their colors and textures.

"Can you see the different colors of the [items]? Can you describe how they look?"

» Touch: Encourage the resident to touch their belongings and room decor; describe the feeling.

"Can you feel the different textures of the [items]?"

What does it feel like? Can you describe it?

Does it remind you of anything?"

» Smell: If applicable, encourage the resident to smell any scented decor items.

"What does [the item] smell like? Does it smell good?"

Does the smell remind you of anything?"

[SENSE] Engage the resident by using prompts, such as questions or gestures, relating to the five senses. Encourage the resident to see, touch, smell, taste, and hear during the activity, for a sensory experience. (Tip: Participate with the resident, you can answer these questions too).

» Hear: If applicable, encourage the resident to listen to any decor items with sound.
"What does [the item] sound like? Can you describe it?
Does the sound remind you of anything?"

» Taste: If applicable, encourage the resident to taste any edible decor items, such as a jar with candies.
"What does [the item] taste like? Can you describe it?
Does the taste remind you of anything?"

Activity Closing

[THANK] Thank the resident for doing the activity with you.

[ASK] Ask for feedback:

» Say: How did you feel about decorating your room for the holidays today?

[ASSESS] Complete the 'after' portion of the Emotion Assessment form

» Say: "Which face shows how you feel right now?"

» Do: Present the resident with the Emotion Assessment 'after' Feeling Faces.

[ASK] Ask if the resident needs anything before you leave and wipe down materials before storing the supplies.

great job!
